

The picture on the front cover is an Icon of St. John Baptist de La Salle, the Founder of the Christian Brothers, painted by Brother William Woeger, FSC, in 1999. It is on display in the Provincial Offices in Burr Ridge, Illinois.

In his left hand, St. de La Salle holds a book entitled The Conduct of Schools. He wrote this book together with his teachers over a period of thirty-five years. Though first printed in 1706, it remains the basic blueprint for the Lasallian concept of education and formation to this day.

In his right hand is a scroll with the words: “You are ambassadors and ministers of Jesus Christ.”

Both those giving and those receiving this memorial card are remembered by the De La Salle Christian Brothers in their daily prayers, at Mass and in all their good works.

Your sacrificial donation is used to carry on the Mission of the Christian Brothers which is “to give a human and Christian education to the young, especially the poor.”

So you too are truly “ambassadors and ministers of Jesus Christ” when you use these cards.
