

Celebrating our founder

Saint John Baptist de La Salle
1651 - 1719

Although the Church celebrates the feast of our founder on April 7th, the De La Salle Christian Brothers or The Brothers of the Christian Schools, celebrate his feast on the traditional day of May 15th.

Following in the spirit of our holy founder,
we pause and remember that we are always and everywhere
in the presence of our provident God.
O my God, I believe in You, I adore You, I hope in You and I love You.

Those who lead people to the truth shall shine as stars for ever.
Those who teach and guide youth and who follow Christ the Lord shall know life in its fullness
And advance His kingdom on earth.
Who gave his life to this work?
Saint John Baptist de La Salle: a man of God.

A man of nobility and riches
who had all that money could offer:
a man of ability and knowledge
who could live his life with ease.
He gave all to the poor of the city,
went to live with a low class of men.
Who knew pain in seeking God's will?
He did.

A need arose in his country
the poor of his day had no schooling.
He looked ahead to the future.
The vision he saw was hard
but his faith in the Lord was rewarded.
The schools and the Brothers survived.
His name is honored by us.
Praise him.

The Lord has given him unending glory;
His name shall be an everlasting remembrance.

He is generous, he gave to the poor;
the good he has accomplished shall last forever.

God found him pure and strong;
he shall have everlasting glory.

Happy are those, O Lord,
whom You guide and teach by Your law.

Psalm 119

Blessed are they whose way is blameless, who follow Your law, O God.

Blessed are they who do Your will,
who seek You with all their hearts,
who never do anything wrong,
but walk in Your ways.

You have laid down Your precepts
to be diligently kept.

O that my ways may be firm
in obeying Your statutes.

Then I shall not be put to shame
as I heed Your commands.

I will praise You with an upright heart
as I learn Your decrees.

I will obey Your statutes
so do not forsake me, Lord.

Glorify to You, Source of All Being,
Eternal Word, and Holy Spirit.

As it was, is now, and ever shall be. Amen.

I & II Timothy passim

As for you, a man dedicated to God, aim for righteousness and Christ-likeness, filled with faith and love, patient and gentle.
Fight the worthwhile battle of the faith and win for yourself
the eternal life to which you were called when you made your profession before many witnesses.
Be an example to all the believers in the way you speak and behave,
and in your love, your faith and your purity.
You have within you a spiritual gift which was given to you.
Fan into a flame the gift that God has given to you.
Never be ashamed of witnessing to the Lord,
but bear the hardships for the sake of the Good News,
relying on the power of God,
Who has saved us and called us to be holy.

Response:

In the heart of the wise dwells wisdom. Alleluia!
The wise will teach the less learned. Alleluia!
Let the children come to Me,
for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. Alleluia!
Amen, I say to you, whoever receives one child such as this in My name receives Me. Alleluia!

Let us pray:

Father and founder of our Institute of the Brothers of the Christian schools, orthodox and prayerful theologian, you realized the value of competent Christian educators and worked untiringly for the instruction of the working class and the poor always relying on the providence of God.

Send generous men to follow your ideals of a spiritual life through the service of education as Christian Brothers.

May we be filled with the spirit of faith and zeal of those first Brothers who ministered so diligently for the salvation of youth through Christian education.

May we and our Lasalian colleagues be Christ-like models for the youth entrusted to our care. May the spirit of Jesus be forever in our hearts. Amen.

Intercessions:

Lord of light and wisdom,

Enlighten and guide others to follow in the Lasalian tradition.
bless all the members of our Lasalian Family

Lord of blessings,

bless and reward all those who labor for the Christian education of our youth especially our Brothers and colleagues in ministry. Reward our benefactors who sustain us in our mission.

Lord of joy,

Fill our hearts with satisfaction and delight as we remember all of our students living and deceased. May they continue to live out their Christian dedication and instruction received in our Lasalian schools around the world.

Lord of holiness,

Call us to a continual conversion of our minds and hearts so that You are the source of our longing and striving.

May we be faithful witnesses of our baptismal commitment as we bring others to You.

May we look to Saint John Baptist de La Salle and all the holy Brothers who have gone before us for inspiration.

Let us pray:

O Lord of light and darkness, joy and sorrow, success and failure, hear our humble prayers and answer them as only You know best. Bless our Lasalian Family and keep us ever faithful to the teachings of Saint John Baptist de La Salle.

We ask this in the name of the Risen Lord Jesus Who is our Brother and Redeemer. Amen.

Formula of Vows

Most Holy Trinity,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit,
with profound respect
before Your infinite majesty,
I consecrate myself entirely to You to procure Your glory as far as I shall be able and as You will require of me.

For this purpose I, Brother _____, promise to unite myself remain in society, with the brothers of the Christian Schools who are associated to conduct,
together and by association,
schools for the service of the poor.
I promise to go wherever I may be sent and to do whatever I may be assigned by the body of the Society or its superiors.

Wherefore, I promise and vow
chastity, poverty, obedience, association for the service of the poor through education, and stability in the Institute
according to the Bull of Approbation and the Rule of the Institute.

I promise to keep these vows all my life.

O God, Source of All Being
and Creator of unfailing light and wisdom, give that same light and wisdom to those who call to You.
As Catholic educators and Lasallian ambassadors
of Jesus Christ,
may our lips praise You;
our lives proclaim Your goodness;
our works give You honor,
and our voices celebrate You forever.
May the Spirit of the Risen Lord Jesus be forever in our hearts and may this same Spirit shine in and through us
as we enlighten, educate and guide
the youth entrusted to our care.
Amen.

Glorify to you, Saint John Baptist de La Salle, apostle of youth, patron of teachers and holy man of God.

Live Jesus in our hearts. Forever!
