

Men in Formation
Christian Brothers of the Midwest

Postulants

Steven Angulo

Farai Zvidzwa

Temporary Professed

Brother Mark Engelmeyer

Brother Mark is originally from Minneapolis, MN. After teaching middle school Religion in Texas, he is currently serving in the Campus Ministry department at St. Mary's University of Minnesota in Winona. He has bachelor's degree in Theology from Franciscan University of Steubenville. He enjoys playing Pokémon Go.

Brother Matt Kotek

Brother Matt is from La Crosse, WI. He studied at St. Mary's University in Minnesota, where he was in the Lasallian Teacher Immersion Program. He joined the Contact Program there. He obtained his master's degree in Education at Christian Brothers University in Memphis, where he was also a member of the Lasallian Association of New Catholic Educators. During this period, he also taught at Our Lady of Sorrows School. He is currently a Spanish teacher at Christian Brothers High School in Memphis.

Brother Dylan Perry

Brother Dylan is originally from Memphis, TN. He has a bachelor's degree in Religion/Philosophy from Christian Brothers University and a master's of Public Service from the University of Arkansas. He currently teaches 6th, 7th, and 8th grade Religion at San Miguel Middle School in Tulsa, OK, where he also moderates Student Council and facilitates weekly group counseling. He has a passion for working for justice in many forms and for destigmatizing mental health care among his students.

Temporary Professed

Brother Ryan Anderson

Brother Ryan grew up in the small town of Mapleton, MN. His familiarity with the Lasallian charism began at St. Mary's University of Minnesota. He started his formation with the Brothers in 2013 at Jeremy House in Philadelphia, where he also studied and worked at LaSalle University. He spent a year in Chicago at the Novitiate. He is currently the associate director of Campus Ministry at Christian Brothers University in Memphis, TN.

Brother Johnathon Emanuelson

Brother Johnathon grew up in Downer's Grove, IL. He professed temporary vows with the Brothers in July 2016. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in journalism from Lewis University and a pre-Theology certificate from Conception Seminary College. He currently lives in Chicago and teaches Religion at De La Salle Institute. He is interested in religion, history, and current events. His hobbies include reading, collecting coins, and working on crossword puzzles.