PURPOSE/RESTRICTIONS

To grant funding to assist in advancing human and Christian religious education in the Lasallian tradition, especially for the economically poor and socially marginalized, with specific emphasis on youth.

Awards will be limited to projects or initiatives that further human and Christian education in the Lasallian tradition. Preference will be given to those projects that support the ministries in the Midwest District, promote social justice, and directly serve the financially poor, with specific emphasis on youth. These funds will not be awarded for the purchase of equipment, construction, or other capital expenditures. In addition, funds will not be awarded to support salary or scholarships or tuition assistance for current operations, but may be used to offset salary, stipends, scholarships or tuition assistance for new programs or projects. Previous receipt of an award does not guarantee renewal.
